Blaze Sweeps Spirit River Elevators

DAMAGE ESTIMATED AT $500,000 was caused when fire raged for seven hours north of Spirit River railway tracks. More than 1,500 cords of pulp wood were reduced to ashes by this fire which is believed to have originated in Alberta Wheat Pool elevator. Every available man from Spirit River, assisted by Rycroft fire department, fought blaze from shortly after midnight to midday.

BIG SALVAGE JOB at Spirit River got underway today as townfolk and grain officials started digging through rubble of more than 200,000 bushels of wheat which were caught in the big fire which swept four elevators early Wednesday morning. Two rail cars on siding near elevators were also destroyed.

NBC Is Believed Winner In Tussle for Jack Benny

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—(AP)—

(BUP)—The National Broadcasting Company today

apparently had won a multi-million dollar network tussle for Jack Benny, professional penny-pincher of the airwaves.

William S. Paley, board chairman of the rival Columbia Broadcasting

the comedian's pro-

years, but that "in

Maniac Being Sought In U.S. Sex Slaying

BOULDER, Colo., Nov. 12.—(BUP)—A cream-colored automobile with Wyoming license plates was sought by the automobile sex prowling Boulder police Tuesday night, when 28-year-old Theresa Foster, a quiet, studious freshman in the college of engineering, said goodbye to her friends at a campus religious club.

Her body was found beneath a bridge at a lonely spot 15 miles south of her hometown, where two hunters. She had been beaten, raped and strangled. Except for meccanica, baby's sex and coat, she was nude.

Detectors said that the strange car, cruising through the streets the night she disappeared, was a blue one. Three automobiles fitting the description already had been checked and "cleared."

New Field Seen Important to City

Huge sums paid the Alberta government for oil rights in the Redwater district assures Edmonton's future as a thriving oil center.

This was the reaction of Edmonton civic and business leaders queried today by The Edmonton Bulletin following announcement of the government that $1,037,000 were paid by three companies for oil rights.

Charles E. Garnett, immediate president of The Edmonton Chamber of Commerce, said:

"The companies have evinced very great faith in the future of the field and it will undoubtedly have a significant economic impact on the city of Edmonton."

Apparently the companies feel that oil can be reached in shallow depths with a minimum of difficulty and I am confident that the money acquired will be used by the government to the best advantage of all the citizens of the province.

President Francis Wisniewski of The Edmonton Chamber is absent from the city.

SEES SECOND LUDIC

Acting Mayor Harold E. Tanner

said:

"It now appears certain that Redwater is to be another Leduc. Edmonton, near the center of this new development, will, of course, reap many benefits."

The millions of dollars going into purchase of the oil companies are proof that the Redwater area is no longer just a gamble. Edmonton can look forward to even more intensive activity in future months."

Miss Minister Tanner previously stated:

"Prospects for development of the new field are very promising."

"Under terms of the government's system of checkbook sale of properties set aside for oil and gas exploration and development, the companies making the cash offers must start drilling before May 31, 1949."

Certified checks accompany the offers to the government.

The big Redwater transaction was discussed at a special meeting of the provincial cabinet Thursday morning, presided over by Premier Ernest Manning.

Some offers were rejected in section 36 although a 40-acre legal subdivision had been tendered for.

And the Parking Space?

Everything looks rosy for an early Spring start on the promised addition to the Edmonton Arena. But what about improvements to the parking space which could very well have been completed before the hockey season started?

We are told that this time there will be no hitch in the extension project.

Delivery of steel has been promised in January.

Tentative arrangements have been made with the contractors.

And Maxwell C. Dewar, city architect, has put the finishing touches to the plans which call for lounge rooms, powder and rest rooms, extra concession space, fans to draw off smoke and space for an additional 1,272 seats which will bring the total seating capacity up to 6,692.

It all seems to have been efficiently planned in a manner that will give Edmonton one of the finest sports arenas in the West.

And with all these facts as reported,

Has the Journal Changed Its Spots?

There is something mysterious going on in the political insides of the dear old Journal newspaper that is causing us to laugh ourselves awake at night.

For the Journal appears to have undergone a violent change of opinion, tantamount, one almost thinks, to that frequently quoted phenomenon consequent upon the leopard changing his spots.

The Journal newspaper has been noted (we had almost said famed) for its obdurate and unceasing advocacy of the Progressive Conservative Party.

But what has happened now?

When Premier Stuart Gordon of Manitoba was shifted to Ottawa, presumably to take a seat in the Liberal cabinet, the Journal burst forth in peans of joy. In a lengthy editorial, which is not unusual, the Journal commented in a spry manner, which is unusual indeed, to the effect that the country now was saved.

Stuart Gordon was sound on provincial-federal relations. He was the champion of the West. He was a miracle man.

In fact, the Journal newspaper, diving headfirst into prophecy, in spite of the horrible example of the prophets in the there will have to be something highly superior in the way of an alibi if actual construction does not begin right on schedule.

But what has happened to the proposal to improve the parking spaces?

All the pleasure and fun of sitting comfortably in a modern arena will be seriously dampened if patrons have to stumble around in the dark and mud to retrieve their cars when the games are over.

In the first place, these parking spaces and the access to them should be paved in some manner to obviate mud and ruts.

In the second place, they should be marked off clearly in numbered sections so that patrons would have some landmarks to help them find their cars as the lots fill up.

In the third place, adequate lighting should be provided for the parking areas and for all approaches to them.

Arena extensions that do not include these improvements to the parking situation will not get half the applause from the public they deserve.

American elections, practically nominated Mr. Garson for the Liberal leadership in 1954.

This startling interjection of its good self into the domestic affairs of Liberalism began all this when the Journal began thumbing its journalistic nose at the Hon. George Drew.

The Journal's repudiation of Mr. Drew, of course, is not sensational. It is accomplished with grandmotherly good manners. But it is none the less definite.

For the Journal, Mr. Drew by ignoring him. It pointedly omits from its editions the reports of his speeches.

To show the extent of its maidenly displeasure with Mr. Drew it even left out a report of his Charlottetown speech in which he explained with considerable good sense his own stand on dominion-provincial relations and his disposition to place national unity above party victory.

Can it be that the Journal has become a Liberal organ overnight?

The thing is perplexing, confusing and perhaps a little sad. For the Journal does not grow in grace with facility. It stumbles on its way to the mourners' bench.

Mixed Drinking in Alberta

The demand for the restoration of mixed drinking in Edmonton and Calgary beverage parlors has reached such proportions that the people of these cities should be given some early opportunity to express an opinion on it.

The latest demand comes from the Alberta Federation of Labor which points out that the only reason mixed drinking was abolished is because it was not adequately controlled.

A provision for cancelling the licenses of proprietors who could not control mixed drinking with decorum would be a complete safeguard, the Federation believes.

This stand probably represents a large section of public opinion. And the public should be given a chance of saying what it thinks.

Synd Delegates Back From Calgary

SYLVAN LAKE, Nov. 10.—Rev. J. McQueen, pastor, R. E. Dodds, elder, and Miss M. Sturges, acting deacons of Memorial Presbyterian church, have returned after attending the synod at Calgary. Mr. McQueen was succeeded as moderator by Rev. P. E. Taylor of Medicine Hat and formerly of Innisfail.

After many years residence here, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Martin have moved to Willingdon, where Mr. Martin will be manager of a co-operative store.

A railway line, however, was built on water level and the same load hauled on the prairie could be handled through the mountains with the same power.

RABBITS OVERLOOK SEVEN-YEAR CYCLE

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Nov. 12.—Last spring, hunters and students of nature thought that the rabbits were coming back, but so far there are no signs of them anywhere in the woods. They run in seven to 10-year cycles and, according to the last cycle, should be plentiful by now, but hunters going through the bush say they do not see any and are at a loss to explain why.

There are very few hawks, who seem to disappear with the rabbits, another thing no one can explain, but it has always been like that here.

Game, too, is not very plentiful outside the forest reserve, which is still closed because of the very dry season. Grass and timber is tinder dry and a fire could sweep unchecked for miles, for a very serious loss to the country.

Wetaskiwin Board Acts on 'Differential'

WETASKIWIN, Nov. 12.—Wetaskiwin Board of Trade will join with other similar institutions to press for the removal of the "Mountain Differential" in freight rates.

Vegreville Adds Another Industry

VEGREVILLE, Nov. 12.—Construction and equipping of a plant for the Vegreville Electric Hatcheries has been completed and will go into production in one month's time. The plant which has been equipped in a manner to comply with both Dominion and Provincial regulations, has a capacity of 7,000 eggs per week.

The owner, John Gablehouse, starts out with a flock of 1,500 White Leghorns and New Hampshire, all R.O.P. birds, but will add to the flock.

M. Skinner, formerly connected with one of the leading Edmonton hatcheries will assume charge of the mechanical end of the industry while the owner, Mr. Gablehouse, will set as business manager. The plant is located on Second Ave. W.

This was decided at a meeting held on Monday evening in the council chamber of the municipal office with Wm. Draayer, president of the board, in the chair.

The motion embodying this action followed a report made by N. A. MacEachern on the Hudson Bay Route, endorsement of which had previously been asked by the "On to the Bay Association."

Mr. MacEachern, in his verbal report to the Board of Trade said that it was necessary to take into account, not only the Hudson Bay route, but also the other available route, lake and rail from the head of the Great Lakes, all rail movement to the eastern seaboard and grain movement via the Pacific Ocean ports. His report dealt primarily with the movement of grain.

He emphasized the Mountain Differential had been struck at a time when the Canadian Pacific could only haul one third the tonnage over the mountains per unit of power compared with prairie haulage. The Canadian National

The Famine Is Over

MEWATA STADIUM, Calgary, Nov. 12.—Thirty-seven years is a long time between jackpots.

But late Thursday afternoon Calgaryans were inclined to overlook this fact as they contemplated with much glee the first western Canadian football title to come to Cowtown since the Tigers beat all challengers west of the Great Lakes, way back in 1911.

Once committed to putting an end to the famine Les Lear and his rough, tough Stampede made a grand job of mopping up. That Saskatchewan Roughrider machine didn't look like it belonged in the same ball game once Stamp took over the coolers to start the second quarter.

Dusky Patterson, fated to be a one-man game, even if in a losing cause, had cracked King Lear and his men by getting into them for Riders' line touch-down almost before all of the great crowd of 10,000 were nicely seated.

The Regina combed picked his way through the Calgary line into the clear and fed 79 yards unmolested down the left side to cross over standing up. He rubbed it in by kicking the point after touch-down.

An event proved this was it for the green and white. Patterson kept plugging away. Ken Charlton and Johnny Cook stayed grimly with the job. But Stamp started to come and once they were rolling Patterson and his mates were quickly engulfed.

Both Of These And Thodos, Too

As Stampede swept all before them over the past two months the names of Keith Spith and "Woody" Strode have become household words in Calgary. Granted both are fine ball players, Spith, with possession of a great arm, looks and acts the part of a professional, from his head to his toes. The giant Strode has those educated grabbers that mean the difference between a completed pass and one that gets a team nothing. "Spith to Strode" has been potent stuff in Western Conference circles. Besides Spith can pack that ball and boot it to a fare-thee-well.

However, in the Remembrance Day conflict 21-year-old Pete Thodos, late of Vancouver College, came close to stealing the show right from under the noses of Spith and his fellow Calgary players. Thodos was a bundle of super-charged dynamite all through the piece. He was granite defensively and as elusive as a bad cheque artist when asked to log the leather.

Thodos' 175 lb. run was the springboard for the first Calgary major score. Again as Stamp took up Riders for their second TD—the one that earned them a shot for the Grey Cup—the young Greek from the coast, reeled off close to 35 yards on two successive jumps.

The Calgary line wasn't long mastering what "General" Grant, Regina coach, sent into action as his front wall. Of course where Grant had little but a thin trickle of reserve shock troops, the well-staffed Lear was two and three deep in most spots.

Undoubtedly, lack of sound strength caught up with the Riders... and laid them low for keeps.

They Play For Keeps

The Stamps are a hard hitting club. Sully Glasier, Regina lineman, wasn't around at the finish. In the second quarter Spith and Wilmet set him down hard. Reilly, a broken ankle.

Once Patterson had to come off for repairs after Pantages and the huge "Chuck" Anderson manhandled him. Cook was in and out of the line-up all through the fourth quarter as Stamp rode him on him.

Riders were a beaten club physically when it was over. Quite apart from the Calgary triumph it was a great show. The ball handling by both teams was superb. Then again, crowds of 10,000 don't happen too often in western Canada. There must have been another couple of thousands and parked in windows and on roof-tops of buildings close by ramshackle Mewata Stadium.

Bands... majorettes... post-game presentations of the Jeff Nicklin award (most valuable player) to Spith and the N. J. (Piffles) Taylor league trophy to the Stamps as a whole... the colorful, demonstrative gathering—provided the thrills without which football isn't the same.

Several hundred Edmontonians journeyed the 400 miles—200 both ways—to sit in on the western wind-up. And as one of them put it afterwards:

"This was great. But how I'd like to see an Edmonton squad in the Conference, one that could beat the ears off these Stampede."

A mouthful well said, brother, well said.

Kilburn Picks Up Six Points Against Quakers

SASKATOON, Nov. 12.—(CP) Scoring averages were flattened Wednesday night when Edmonton Flyers thumped Saskatoon Quakers 12-3 in a free-scoring Western Canada Hockey league game that moved the second-place Alberta club to within four points of the leading Regina Caps.

Edmonton took a commanding 6-1 lead in the opening period after being held on even terms during the first nine minutes of play; split goals to maintain their lead at 9-2 in the middle frame and went on to score four more in the third for the final count.

KILBURN IN FINE FETTER Colin Kilburn paced the nine Flyers who figured in the scoring, accounting for three goals and assisting on three others. Morey Bimble, forward, scored two goals and three assists, while Alex Pringle and Bill Fisher scored twice. Other Edmonton scorers were Doug Anderson, Andy Clovechuk and Bill Pettigrew.

Ed Lear, Reg Bentley and Galt Turner scored for Quakers, Benjie also getting on the board.

SS Tops Canadians In Junior Series

Ken Johansson got 'hot' for a minute and 47 seconds Wednesday night to give South Side a 5-3 victory over Canadians in the first game of the City Junior Hockey League double-header and a third place finish in the pre-season 'pennant' series. Canadians ended last in the series.

In that brief period Johansson clicked for two centers, the winner and one for good measure.

Don Vialoy, flashy Canadian centre, gave his club the jump in the first period when he tallied in the second minute. Ralph Young pulled the South Riders even before the session ended.

Jack Bradshaw again gave Canucks the lead and this time Ben Cherkil, from Johansson evened things up once more.

South Side picked up the lead for the first time in the third period when Jerry Towle clicked. Then came Johansson's game-winning follow-up by Gordon Drummond for the Canadians and Johansson again to wind up scoring.

EAC's Shade Leafs 4-3 To Cop Pennant

MacPherson Nets Clincher
With 14 Seconds Remaining

One misplay can often mean a hockey game and EAC took advantage of such a honor to edge Waterloo Maple Leafs 4-3 Wednesday night and capture the City Junior Hockey League pre-season 'pennant'. The victory was EAC's third straight in the three-game round-robin set. More than 1,000 fans sat in.

The big 'go' came with about 12 seconds to go when Don Brown misplayed, allowing Bill MacPherson to gain possession and sail in on defenceman Eric Paterson in the Leaf citadel and all the puck under the divider goal, just 14 seconds before the game ended.

PATERSON COVERS UP

Just previously Paterson had covered up on two of his mates misplays in a matter of seconds when he stopped point-blank drives from Doug Kilburn and George McVoy in quick succession.

It was yet another bonchase play which had allowed the winners to knot the count at 3-3 at the nine-minute mark after the Leafs had taken a goal edge early in the period. Arrie Carnegie allowing McVoy in alone on Paterson at 9:01 for the tying marker.

ELDER THOMAS' SOLO

Previously the game had been bitterly fought with EAC drawing blood first in the opening on Elder Thomas' solo effort. They held the lead until the end of the period but that was all.

Maples finished the night after eight seconds of second session. Ken Watson got the face-off and passed the puck to Doug McCuskey who went down the right side, ducked the defence and hit the upper right hand corner with a stinging effort.

Thomas got EAC ahead again in the third minute of the period from Duke Edmondson before Bud Purkin, from Don Phillips, evened the score.

MERLUK SIDELINED FOR TONIGHT'S GAME

Big Merluk, who returned here Thursday, will be missing from the Edmonton Flyer line-up in Regina against the Caps tonight because of an injury he suffered Tuesday in the Queen City when hit across the face by the stick of Regina defenceman Vic Myles.

Several of Merluk's teeth were pushed back by the blow, which came while he was half turned away from the hockey resguard. A Regina doctor said he didn't know whether they could be saved. The medic pushed the teeth back into position but Merluk says he won't know until Monday whether they will be all right.

Yanks Put Newark Club Up For Sale

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 12.—(BUP)—The Newark International Baseball league club, once one of the most successful in the minor leagues, was put up for sale Thursday.

After 17 years of continuous operation, the parent New York Yankees threw in the towel and hung up the 400-acre sign.

PLAYERS ON BLOCK
In addition to the franchise, the players under contract and Huggins Stadium were put on the block.

"The Yankees feel... that a change in ownership will be beneficial as is invariably the case in baseball operations," a formal statement said.

General Manager, parson Carroll said no price had been put on the property and would not be "until we are convinced that a responsible party is bidding for it." No definite offers have been received thus far, he said.

Top-Notch Menu Planned For Junior Hockey Opener

With their round-robin, pre-season "penalty" series out of the way, City Junior hockey league teams swing into their regular season activities Saturday night at the Arena.

League executives have lined up what they believe to be top-notch official opening game ceremonies.

Among other things they will have the Edmonton School Boys' band on hand to entertain. As well they plan to have a city official face-off the first puck. Other frills are promised.

All this will get underway when RAC and Maple Leafs come on the ice for the first game at 7:00 o'clock.

FIERY RIVALRY
If they put up a battle anything like Wednesday's, in which RAC edged the Maple Leafs on a last minute goal, the fans are in for a treat.

The two clubs battled hammer-and-tongue last season with RAC coming out on top when the schedule ended only to see the Leafs dump them in the playoffs.

Saturday's second contest, between South Side and Canadian, will start as soon as the debris from the opener is cleared away.

LOTS OF THRILLS
The two clubs put on a good display in their first encounter Wednesday and while the hockey could not be classed as top flight it provided all the thrills that should go with a game.

The league will continue the system of 15-minute periods used in the "penalty" series.

Burma Democrat Party Organized

RANGOON, Nov. 12.—(Reuters)—Thakshila Sein, formerly a member of the government's executive council, yesterday announced the formation of the Burma Democratic party which he will lead. The party will seek closer relations with Britain and India.

"We averaged only 2,100 fans per contest for these seven games," he said, "whereas our season-per-game average was 2,900."

Coast Bombers Pass Through City

Vancouver Blue Bombers (dominant Junior football champions) passed through Edmonton last night en route to Saskatoon and the western junior final against that city's Hilltops.

Bombers, 28 strong, are optimistic about a victory and are already planning what they will do when they get down to the size of the Canadian final against other Hamilton Wildcats or Point Edward, Ont.

Vancouver entered the western final by trouncing Calgary Toros, 29-24 last Saturday in Calgary.

There are nearly 10,000 fans in Great Britain, or one for every five persons.

They held a narrow 3-2 lead at the end of the first period and were ahead 6-3 at the end of the second session before they broke loose with their barrage of goals.

British Babes Share Royal Child's Layette

Princess Elizabeth Wishes to Give
Baby Gifts to Other New-Born Babes

LONDON, Nov. 12.—(AP)—A record baby shower for Princess Elizabeth's baby may overflow into many humbler British homes.

The Princess has let it be known she would like other babies arriving the same day as hers to share many hundreds of layettes given to her by loyal subjects and admirers the world over.

The birth of Elizabeth's baby is expected some time this week-end in London alone it is estimated that at least 300 to 400 babies will be born this week-end.

Elizabeth and her husband, Prince Philip, may share their baby presents with perhaps 100 or more of that number.

A similar course with wedding presents was followed by the Princess when she was married last November.

Overwhelmed with gifts from all over the world, she gave away some two dozen frocks and suits to other November brides of her own age.

Months ago women of Britain and the Commonwealth lands started making nursery clothes and organizing Elizabeth needlework clubs.

The idea caught on, particularly in Australia and New Zealand where the Royal Family expects to visit next year. Sydney has had two baby showers, hand-made and embroidered.

From donors close to home have come lambs wool and kid leather coats, embroidered slats and knitted.

An American firm is rumored to have offered daily diaper service to the new baby to be born to the Royal cradle. Much as Elizabeth might appreciate the offer, it is so doubtful will be turned down.

T.B. Testing Plan Offered Hospitals

Convention Told Facilities Would Be Given Free

CALGARY, Nov. 12. — (CP) — A plan for testing patients for tuberculosis upon their entry to hospital was offered the Associated Hospitals of Alberta convention Wednesday. The plan was suggested by Robert Dickey, secretary of the Alberta Tuberculosis Association.

The tuberculosis association desires to provide all hospitals with tuberculin test patches free of charge. Patients could be given these tests upon their admittance to hospital. Dickey said they had come into contact with hospitals, but if the test was positive an X-ray could be given for a nominal charge.

CHEAPER X-RAYS
Mr. Dickey said that some of the large hospitals now were putting in special X-ray equipment which permitted X-rays to be made more easily and cheaper. The Royal Albert Edward hospital in Edmonton could now give a tuberculin X-ray for 50 cents. He said he had destroyed the Holy Cross and General Hospitals in Calgary would soon be able to provide the same service.

The tuberculosis test would serve as further screening for persons not aware that they were afflicted with the disease, Mr. Dickey said. He felt it would complement work already being done by the Alberta X-ray clinics in that it would include people unable to get to the clinics. The work of the association and the tuberculin test patch plan are financed, by public contribution through the Christmas Seal campaign.

RESOLUTION WITHDRAWN
A resolution submitted earlier at the Associated Hospitals convention protesting Alberta government action in demanding that municipal hospitals enter the government at a day health plan before being given building grants, was withdrawn by its movers—L. E. Dutton of Lethbridge and Mrs. T. L. O'Rourke of Calgary.

Mr. Dutton said that he withdrew the resolution because he found that there was opposition particularly among rural members. Several rural members said their districts had come under the provincial plan and that they were satisfied with it.

In place of the original motion of protest Mr. Dutton urged that the convention endorse the plan recommended by the association's executive committee. This urged that no municipality be forced into the scheme to get a building grant.

He also asked that an overall plan of allocating the building grants which include federal and provincial funds be prepared by a non-partisan committee.

B.C. Closes Its Case On Freight Charges

By Norman Michie
VANCOUVER, B.C., Nov. 12. — (CP) — British Columbia's case against the mountain differential in Canada's freight rate structure closed here Wednesday on a note of firm opposition to an "inequitable assessment."

From Vancouver, the hearing has progressed through the productive Okanagan Valley and listened to the resentment of miners in the West Kootenays.

Complaints of boards of trade in these fruit and mineral producing communities have been presented to a three-man bench of the Federal Board of Transport Commissioners, headed by Mr. Justice M. B. Archibald of Ottawa.

A four-day session in Vancouver heard evidence from boards of trade in Fraser Valley, trans-Island, Columbia, and elsewhere.

Pope Urges Europe Unity

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy, Nov. 12. — (AP) — Pope Pius today strongly urged Europe to unite and warned that "some people already are asking themselves if it is not too late."

"European union must be completed," he said in a speech to 300 delegates to the European Federation of federalists, who ended a four-day convention in Rome today.

There is no time in his lost... the deplorable effects and the war must be wiped out and any return to violence must be combated.

In order to attain this Christian wish for unity, the great nations must sacrifice part of their past greatness so they may take their places with other nations of the continent and form a true European family."

He said European reconstruction must be based on a "rebirth of religious spirit and the restoration of the rights of man."

$250,000 Possible Loot In Robbery
MANVILLE, Ont., Nov. 12. — (CP) — Duplicating an unsolved bank robbery last year, thieves broke into the bank of Nova Scotia here early yesterday and escaped with loot estimated as high as $250,000.

As in the July 29, 1947, raid on the Bank of Nova Scotia's branch at Chapin, Ont., the thieves concentrated on privately-held safety deposit boxes after cutting their way through a 24-in. steel door on the vault.

He said European reconstruction must be based on a "rebirth of religious spirit and the restoration of the rights of man."

Coast Hitchhiker Is Forced To Buy His Passage Home

LONDON, Nov. 12.—(CP)—Alan Bluechel, 24-year-old Vancouver hitchhiker, now is homebound by passport after six months' wandering through Europe, recently tried to hitchhike home from here by air on a trans-Atlantic freight plane.

"Alan told us he had managed to get passage to Seattle," the official said. "He gave us a forwarding address there. I believed he would stay in Seattle a while before returning to Vancouver."

Bluechel, a graduate of the University of British Columbia, left Vancouver with $300 and an urge to see the world. He visited Panama, the West Indies, Rome, Geneva, Paris and southern France.

In answer to a question, Wilson said there would be no increase in Canadian passport fees and no increase in paper supplies for book publishers.

More Newsprint To Be Available To U.K. Papers

LONDON, Nov. 12.—(UPI)—The government announced yesterday that the size of British newspapers will be increased by an average of one page daily starting Jan. 1.

The increase, made possible by the step-by-step production of newsprint in Britain, will give news papers and average of five instead of four pages a day.

Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade, told Commons that in addition to permitting the size increase, the government was now able to remove restrictions on freedom of circulation "so that the public will from the beginning of the year again be able to buy the newspaper of their choice."

In answer to a question, Wilson said there would be no increase in Canadian passport fees and no increase in paper supplies for book publishers.

Abolition of Privy Council Appeals Ticklish Problem

By R. K. Carnegie

OTTAWA, Nov. 12.—(CP)—Stuart Carson, if and when he becomes justice minister—probably next week—will have a ticklish problem placed in his lap right at the start.

It is the abolition of appeals to the privy council in London and making the supreme court of Canada the court of final appeal.

The national Liberal convention last August forced the issue by a plank in the party platform in favor of abolishing appeals to London. Prominent constitutional authorities here recently have been instructed to study the ramifications of such an important change.

COUNCIL'S POWERS

The privy council can give judgments on cases relating to the jurisdiction of the provinces and the Dominion as well as on important civil actions. A month ago it found that the Saskatchewan legislature was within its jurisdiction in passing a law after the supreme court had held the legislation ultra vires under the British North America Act. Whether the provinces would fire as well in their disputes with the Dominion, if they could not appeal beyond the supreme court here, has been debated for years.

The attitude of the United Kingdom government is that it is prepared to provide the facilities for litigants to carry their cases to the foot of the throne but would have no objection to a discontinuance of the practice.

Thus far attempts for abolition by private bills in the common have made no headway. They were crowded out by government business.

There are three views on the matter.

1. Abolition of appeals to the privy council.

2. Despatching appeals to constitutional disputes between the Dominion and the provinces.

3. No change from existing procedure.

Provinces may insist that before they give up the right to carry their disputes to the privy council, they should have a referendum on the constitution of the supreme court.

Since the Dominion government appoints all judges, it would hardly be expected to agree to Westminster everytime a change is needed in the 10th act.

However, the feeling here is that abolition of appeals is all the government is prepared to consider a possibility.

The view is held by many that instead of handling the situation piecemeal, parliament should go the whole way. Besides abolishing appeals to London, it should also get authority to amend the constitution as other dominions do and not be forced to go to the parliament at Westminster everytime a change is needed in the 10th act.

Clinic Attendance Shows Increase

Rapid increase in patronage at the city's well-baby and immunization clinics will shortly demand increase in personnel and extension of office space and facilities. Dr. G. M. Little, medical officer of health, stated today.

During October 1,200 babies attended the well-baby clinic, with 317 new admissions being recorded during the month. Average attendance at each clinic was 68.

Total attendance at the immunization clinic was 2,045, and the average attendance at each clinic, 102.

Immunizations were given against diphtheria, whooping cough, scarlet fever, smallpox, typhoid and tetanus.

YOUNGSTER MAKES DAD AWFUL MAD

Pupils at McCauley and Queen's avenue public school were beneficiaries recently in a share the wealth program. But it had repercussions.

The seven-year-old son of a nearby resident is reported to have taken $200 from his father's wallet and with the help of his nine-year-old brother distributed the money among pals at the school.

Some ranging from 17 to $450 were given to 22 youngsters.

At yet only $15 of an estimated $200 distributed at the school has been recovered by investigating police officers.

Give Me a Name!

See Classified Pages.

Sunday Night Ends Contest

You've got to hurry folks if you want to cash in on the $300 in cash prizes being awarded in the Bulletin's "Give Me A Name Contest".

There is just three days left in which to submit your name suggestion for the "Nameless One".

No entries postmarked after midnight Sunday will be declared eligible, so if you're intending to enter this contest and make a little extra Christmas shopping money now is the time to get busy and submit your name selection.

Winners of the contest will be announced in Saturday, Nov. 20 edition of the Bulletin.

For full details, rules and regulations of the "Give Me A Name Contest" read the Classified pages of the Bulletin.

The awards will be financed from Christmas Seal sale funds. E. H. Ross, Drumheller, president of the association, said.

A fellowship of $800 will be offered annually to a recent U. of A. graduate in medicine to acquire training in tuberculosis work. Training must be obtained in an Alberta tuberculosis hospital operated either for the province or Dominion government.

Prizes of $75 and $25 are to be offered annually to fourth-year medical students for the two best essays on some phase of tuberculosis work. Winners of these prizes will be eligible for the major award which will be bestowed by the committee on awards of the faculty of medicine, University of Alberta.

The award is expected to assist in "making our doctors more TB-conscious and TB-suspicious," Mr. Ross said.

New Minister Is Inducted

Rev. J. Gordon Taylor, moderator of the Edmonton Presbytery, presided, assisted by Rev. J. Heribson, interim moderator. Rev. J. Kelman and Rev. Dr. T. Murphy.

Rev. Johnston succeeds Rev. H. Glen Campbell who has left for a post at Seaford, Ont.

He is a graduate of Knox Presbyterian College, Toronto.

A reception, sponsored by the Ladies Aid, was held following the installation ceremony in honor of Rev. Johnston.

Miss Gwen Williams presided at the tea table.

Civic Employee Retires Saturday

Thirty-four years of service by Joseph Gagnon in the city engineer's department will end Saturday.

Mr. Gagnon joined the civic staff in November, 1914, as a teamster, and later was in charge of the city streets.

With the passing of horse drawn vehicles several years ago Gagnon was appointed to his present position of watchman at the city yards, 105 avenue and 95 street.

BRIDGE

Smother Play Wins

Small Slam Here

By William E. McKenney

This is the last of five articles on the fascinating but difficult another play.

If you run across a smother play, send it to me. It is the most difficult of all bridge plays to recognize because you usually have lost the timing on the hand before you realize that a smother play is possible. To get the full benefit of today's hand, you should lay the cards out, because it is one of the more complicated smother plays.

On the opening lead of the six of clubs, East played the king of clubs and declarer won with the ace. His next play was the queen of hearts and West correctly put on the three-spot. Declarer let it ride. Even when East showed out on the ace of spades, he was not too much worried, as he still hoped for a spade break.

The dealer of hearts was led, and when West played the four-spot, dummy's eight was finessed. Now

♠ 2 10 8 5	♥ 7 6 5 4 3	♦ 10 9 8 7 6 5	♣ 10 9 8 7 6 5
♠ 4 3 2	♥ A K Q J	♦ A K Q J	♣ A K Q J
♠ 10 9 8 7 6 5	♥ 10 9 8 7 6 5	♦ 10 9 8 7 6 5	♣ 10 9 8 7 6 5

the king of spades was cashed and a low spade led to declarer's ace. South knew then that the spade suit did not break, so he had to resort to a smother play to make the contract.

He ruffed his losing club in dummy, leaving dummy with the blank ace of trumps and West with the king and five-spot. It looked as if West was sure to make the king of trumps. A diamond was led from dummy, with the king, and a diamond returned to dummy's ace. A third diamond was ruffed by declarer, and a small spade led to dummy's queen. At this point declarer led back dummy's last diamond. East played the jack and declarer ducked, losing spade, leaving himself with the jack and ten of hearts. East had only the king and queen of clubs. When he returned one of them, South trumped with the ten of hearts, and West was smothered out of his king. If he undertrumped with the five, dummy's four of spades would be discarded. If he overtrumped with the king, declarer would trump with the ace in dummy and ruff the four of spade with the jack of hearts.
